DALLAS, TX – Glazer's, Inc. is pleased to announce that it has closed on the purchase of substantially all of the assets of Halo Distributing Company, one of the country's largest malt beverage distributors. Halo is a 6.5 million case malt beverage distributor servicing over 3,500 retail outlets in the San Antonio, Texas market, which includes 8 counties. Halo distributes MillerCoors and many other important strategic beer suppliers, including Heineken USA, Diageo Guinness USA and New Belgium.

Glazer's President and CEO, Sheldon "Shelly" Stein, stated, "We are extremely excited by this major malt acquisition, which is the largest in Glazer's history. The Halo acquisition is part of our overall corporate strategy to aggressively expand our footprint in the beer distribution business, and adding this particular Texas distributor is a significant strategic step forward in this direction."

Glazer's Executive Vice President Malt Beverages, Phil Meacham, said, "Today's announcement is an important step for Glazer's. This acquisition into a major metro market will significantly enhance our retail presence in South Texas and make Glazer's the 6th largest malt beverage distributor in the country. We are also pleased to announce that Don Gallian will become General Manager for Glazer's malt business in both San Antonio and South Texas. This acquisition will also create many career opportunities for current Halo employees as we continue to expand our malt business for Glazer's."

John Wilson, one of Halo's current owners, said, "We are pleased to sell Halo Distributing to the Glazer family of companies. We know our employees are excited to have the opportunity to work with such a fine family and excellent management team. We have truly enjoyed working with Glazer's on this transaction and wish them success as they continue to expand."
